NEW YORK RACING PLANS

INDICATIONS POINT TO A SEASON OF APPROXIMATELY EIGHTY DAYS.

Sport Will Begin at Belmont Park in Early June and Dates Will Be Arranged to Avoid Conflict with Amateur Meetings Already Scheduled.

New York, March 1.—It is now accepted as practically certain that the early part of June will witness the launching of the proposed plan for the revival of racing in this vicinity.

It was definitely learned on excellent authority that racing on a moderate scale will be attempted by at least three racing associations in the state of New York this year—Belmont Park, Aqueduct and Saratoga—with the attitude of the Empire City Racing Association of Yonkers to be outlined by James Butler when he returns from a visit to Juarez, Mex., on March 7.

Before these tracks throw open their gates it will be necessary to form a sort of protective combination that will embrace stockholders, breeders and horsemen with the idea of pooling interests to meet financial obligations. The racing associations at present have no idea how much support the public will accord to the proposed revival of the turf, so that in a way the sport will be practically in the nature of an experiment.

If Mr. Butler decides to open Empire City, the sport may begin at Belmont Park on or about June 10, to be followed by meetings at Aqueduct, Empire City and Saratoga, with short meetings in the fall after the Sept. closes. It is figured out that there may be four days of racing each week or perhaps eighty days in all, as against 180 days each year when the Percy-Gray law was in effect.

It is well understood that the proposed meetings will not be allowed to conflict with those of the various hunt clubs and amateur organizations which operate under the jurisdiction of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. These amateur affairs at Belmont Park Terminal, Piping Rock, Great Neck and other places will be encouraged, as it is the opinion that they have been of material assistance in keeping the turf partially alive in this state.

That there will be no more racing at Sheepshead Bay is accepted as a foregone conclusion. The Coney Island Jockey Club is said to be negotiating for the sale of the historic race course by the sea and will turn the Futurity over to Saratoga. The fate of the Gravesend track remains in doubt.

It is learned that the racing associations have been advised by eminent lawyers that the Sudder decision in the Supreme court was unanimous, and approved by the Appellate Division of the Supreme court last week, permits oral betting among individuals, but prohibits any form of bookmaking; that the directors' liability law will amount to nothing of a serious nature if the Sudder ruling is enforced to the letter and that there must be a conviction for bookmaking, not betting, before the directors of racing associations can be prosecuted for knowingly permitting such violations of the law.

On the strength of this legal advice the racing associations no longer fear trouble from the authorities, although they would welcome a further ruling by the Court of Appeals. But an appeal rests entirely with the district attorney of Nassau County, who has been quoted as saying that he believes it would be futile to carry the case higher up.

If a bill is introduced at Albany repeating the directors' liability law it will not come from the racing associations, it is positively stated. The trotting horsemen or the state fairs might favor such legislation, but the racing interests, it would seem, are satisfied to depend entirely upon the courts for relief.

In opening the tracks it may be said that the turf governors will eliminate the professional gambler or so-called bookmaker entirely. Organized betting will not be tolerated. There will be no return of the betting rings, consequently the daily reticent collected from professionals, as in the old days. Individuals will be permitted to make wagers privately and it will be legal for a bettor to record his own wagers, also to give the slip of paper to the layers of odds or the track's clerk.

Eventually all the tracks, with the exception of Saratoga, will be far removed from the city limits. If the Coney Island Jockey Club, for instance, should decide to race after the prospective sale of the Sheepshead Bay course, it is believed that a new track, involving a comparatively small outlay, would be constructed on Long Island within an hour's ride of the city, in carrying out this plan the racing interests would try to keep the sport out of the reach of persons who could ill afford to participate in it at the trackside.

In short, it is planned to begin racing at the bottom and gradually build up. The turf promoters admit that the public must become educated to new conditions before it will be possible to pay running expenses. The stakes and purses of necessity must be small and the horsemen will be asked to help by paying for the horses. The breeders, too, will be asked to contribute to a general guarantee fund which will be swelled by the stockholders of the racing associations that decide to go ahead.

From Albany comes the information that Governor Sulzer has practically decided to appoint three new State Racing Commissioners to succeed James Wadsworth, Sr., H. K. Knapp and John Sanford. The new commission, it is said, will comprise Charles Kohler of this city, chairman; Montagu Gerrans of Buffalo, and William E. Lewis, a newspaper man. Mr. Kohler is a wealthy piano manufacturer, who owns nearly one hundred thoroughbreds, including Fitz Herbert and other horses that he purchased from his trainer, S. C. Hildreth. Mr. Kohler has racing stables in France and England, together with many two-year-olds wintering at Sheepshead Bay. He also owns an extensive breeding establishment in the Ramapo Hills.

Mr. Gerrans is a member of the firm of Woolley & Gerrans, proprietors of the Trophée Hotel in Buffalo and the Hotel Marie Antoinette in this city. Up to a year ago they controlled the Grand Union Hotel at Saratoga. Mr. Lewis is editor of the Morning Telegraph. These prospective appointments, it is said, will be received with favor by the racing associations.

A CASE OF "THAT DECEPTIVE ANGLE."

Some Juarez Spectators Question Decision Awarding Purse to Upright.

El Paso, Tex., March 1.—Close finishes marked the afternoon's racing, the public took exception to the judges' decision as to the winner of the fourth race. Winning Witch and Upright were the horses that figured in the episode. Winning Witch was bearing out in the drive that took place in the final eighth and finished on the extreme outside under the judges' stand. The official decision gave the purse to Upright. The angle on a track as wide as this one made it difficult to really decide which horse had won. The judges were certainly better able to determine than anybody else. Those who

JUAREZ MEETING CONTINUES TO PROSPER

El Paso, Tex., March 1.—There is as yet no diminution of public interest in the racing at the Juarez track and it may be concluded that the season has not yet begun to wane. The attendance continues to keep close up to the best standard established at any time during the winter. The places of the few who have left for home having been filled with new recruits, James Butler, the New York turfman, who has not visited the Juarez track since the winter of 1910-11, upon his arrival here a few days ago expressed himself as amazed over the magnitude of the sport here. With the years and faith in the ultimate success of the venture he never thought that it would become so flourishing thus early. Mr. Butler has always been one of the main backers of the Jockey Club Juarez and has shared with Manager M. J. Winn the belief that the Mexican course could not fail to prove a winner in the long run. That it should become so successful in its fourth season of racing, however, was an agreeable surprise to the New York turfman, who is one of the most liberal sportsmen alive and loves racing in all its aspects. Mr. Butler arranged his business affairs in New York so that he could remain away for quite a period and he brought his entire family here with him. He has decided to remain here until near the close of the meeting.

The western trainer, W. C. Clancy, will make a campaign in Kentucky the coming spring and summer with a string in which are three veteran racers, Gemmell, Fern L. and Little Jane. The last named is now seven years old, while Fern L. is eight and Gemmell nine years old. Yet in spite of their advanced age all are still in winning form. Mr. Clancy will take to Kentucky his two-year-old filly, Ladyfinger, b. f. by Nasrullah—Favara. Mr. Clancy has been a successful trainer in the west and his friends do not doubt but that his string will cut some figure in Kentucky racing, although three of the horses he will take there are older than the average winning performers seen in the blue grass country.

W. J. Speirs has written to a friend at the Juarez track to secure the services of some good young rider here for the season of 1913 in Kentucky. The Latonia trainer reports that he has a half dozen pretty fair horses to race this year, and he therefore would like to have a jockey of his own. Mr. Speirs' representative tried to secure R. Gray and E. Haynes, but both are tied up with contracts for this year. S. J. Kelley, who has the former rider in his employ, is going to Kentucky this spring, with his string and so Mr. Speirs will have an opportunity to test that boy's riding ability. The trainer of Latonia had poor luck last season riding jockeys of the free lance order, hence his desire to secure one who can learn the peculiarities of each horse in his barn. Mr. Speirs writes that the few horses he has wintered at Latonia have done well and says that those in his own string are healthy and robust and the most promising lot he has had in his care for some time. Mr. Speirs, who in the old days raced with race success the noted "Cannon," is a skillful man with a horse, as he demonstrated last season when Latonia, supposed to be purely a sprinter, became a performer that raced successfully in good company over long distances after being transferred to his care.

John Randolph quit racing at Juarez before the winter meeting is over because he figured his horses needed a let-up if they are to be campaigned to any extent the coming summer. So as a consequence he shipped his stable, including Bob Lynch and Tifford Thomas, to Oklahoma a few days ago. Bob Lynch won a couple of races here this winter, but he has developed a vicious and sulky disposition, and will likely never again be a reliable performer. Mr. Randolph has a smart four-year-old in Tifford Thomas and if he meets with no racing or training mishap before he again reaches Juarez next winter he is likely to be in the first flight of the sprinters, as each season he has shown amazing improvement over his previous season. Bonnie Joe, the sire of Tifford Thomas, is a son of Faustus, that is popular in Oklahoma.

Earl Linnell will make another campaign in Kentucky the coming spring and summer with a string of horses he is training that race in the name of J. Hochstein. Vain is a right shifty four-year-old in this stable and there are several in the string which bid fair to make good in the future. One of these is the three-year-old filly Maddalena, by Sempronius—Festina, for whom Mr. Linnell has decided to enter for the Kentucky Oaks this year. Maddalena is a filly that was bred by George J. Long, and Mr. Linnell acquired her in Kentucky last fall. He has not started her here this season, but he will likely give her a race or two here before he starts her in the Kentucky Oaks. The daughter of Sempronius has grown greatly since she came out of her two-year-old form and is now as good a looking filly as is in training at the Juarez track. She has shown enough in private recently to encourage him to have faith in her chances in an event like the historic Kentucky Oaks.

Frank Farrar is another who will try Kentucky this spring and summer with the horses he is racing here for himself and S. Veiller. They include at present the five-year-old mare Beatrice Soule, the four-year-old gelding Minorioso and the three-year-old filly Mrs. Gamp and the four-year-old colt Jack Ellis. The string will likely be increased by the purchase of several additional horses before the time comes for shipment to Louisville.

Dr. C. Cann, paddock judge at Churchill Downs, Douglas Park and Latonia, who has spent most of the winter at Juarez, left for his home this week to attend to the professional work he has to do in Kentucky before spring racing begins there. Before leaving Juarez he fired Marie Hyde for Al Austin, who has decided to give the old mare another trial in training before sending her to the stud, as he contemplated doing this spring when he had her examined some weeks ago. After Dr. Cann looked her over he informed Mr. Austin that the mare had a chance to race another season with proper firing, and so the trainer decided to let him apply the iron. Mr. Austin will make no attempt to race her until midsummer and then if she stands preparations he will have a handy racing tool for next winter's meeting here. Marie Hyde won eleven races in 1911. She is now six years old.

Little Jake, dubbed the "Missouri speed marvel," is still at Washington Park, El Paso, and has no chance to race at Juarez this season. This horse has started but twice, both times run at Denver last season. On one occasion he won and in the other race he ran second. When he won a protest was registered on the ground that he was a three-year-old instead of a two-year-old. Because this protest was lodged against him, Little Jake has not been allowed to race here as his trainer failed to prove his age. Little Jake is a half-brother to Blagg and is credited with possessing speed of a dazzling order. Veterinarians who have examined Little Jake have been unable to determine his age by the usual method and confess that they can not say positively whether he is a two or a three-year-old. He is owned by C. S. Canada.

Barney, one of the best two-year-old developments of the present Juarez meeting, will be taken to Kentucky this spring by A. Tobias and entered in the chief juvenile events at Churchill Downs, Douglas Park and Latonia. The son of First Chin, which is trained by C. Clark, fell sick after racing well here at the beginning of the season, but he recovered sufficiently to run second to Old Rosebud on February 9 in the Yucatan Stakes. He is a good looking youngster, with an abundance of size, and in his few races here he has shown not only a high turn of speed but races as if he will be a stayer.

Kay Spence fears that the three-year-old Nobby will require a long rest to bring him around to anything like the form he showed as a two-year-old in Kentucky last season. In fact his trainer seems to think that the colt's recent sickness may virtually ruin his chances of becoming a useful three-year-old. Nobby was an exceedingly sick horse for awhile here, having been stricken at about the time Ozama, one of his stablemates, died. That Nobby was possessed, but he does not show a disposition to want to run for more than three furlongs, and when he has covered that much ground he is to all appearances done. His recent races have effectually settled any Ken tucky or Latonia Derby aspirations his trainer may have had a month or so ago and he will not even appear as an entry when those important events close for nominations this spring. Nobby is owned by W. E. Knebelkamp, the Louisville baseball manager, who purchased him last fall from C. C. VanMeter for $2,500. Early in September last Mr. VanMeter rated the colt at $6,000 and had he not intended to quit racing would doubtless never have sold him. Spence will likely let up on the son of Marta Santa until mid-summer and take a chance that with a long rest the colt may yet become a fairly useful performer.

A two-year-old stake winner of 1909 in Kentucky that is racing well at Juarez is Eye White, now in the stable of S. Polk, who purchased the six-year-old gelding from W. H. Fizer last summer. Mr. Fizer developed the son of Yankee as a yearling and won with him the Harold Stakes at Latonia, in which he beat Joe Morris and Donau, which two performers were the respective Latonia and Kentucky Derby winners of 1910. Eye White has won up to a mile this season at Juarez and in one of his six furlong successes he ran the distance in 1:12½. The son of the Futurity winner of 1901 has a highly creditable racing record. So far he has started in 38 races, of which he has won 27, finished second in 10 and third in 15. His winning stakes and purses amount to over $11,600. He has won since he entered his five-year-old form no less than fifteen races and the present year is his fifth winning season on the turf. Eye White was foaled as the property of Milton Young, a Lexington member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and was purchased by J. Hal Woodford for the Fizer stable as a yearling for $350. Eye White is by a Futurity winner and his dam, Lady in Waiting, is also by another Futurity winner, Requitall. His granddam, Stately, by Imp. King Ernest, is a stake winner and has produced two stake winners in Court Lady and Mandarin. It is the family of Kinglike, the sire of the Futurity winner L'Alouette. Eye White will no doubt win many more races before his career comes to a close.

REPUBLICAN SCORES AGAIN

TALBOTT RACER IS RETURNED WINNER OF

ANOTHER STAKE AT PALMETTO PARK.

Beats Busy a Nose in Citadel Handicap—Disagreeable Weather Affects Attendance—Track Gets Another Drenching.

Charleston, S. C., March 1.—J. O. Talbott's Republican accounted for the Citadel Handicap, one mile, which served as the feature of the card of seven races run at Palmetto Park this afternoon. He scored in a spirited struggle with Busy, which he beat by a nose. Milton R. took the minor portion of the purse. Republican's victory, coming after his grand effort in the George Washington Handicap, when he beat some of the best horses here, stamps him as a real good racer. Good racing luck aided him considerably towards today's success and it was generally held that Busy was unlucky to have lost.

The severe weather which prevailed today and the bad condition of the track detracted greatly from the interest in the racing and was the main reason for the smallest Saturday attendance of the meeting. The betting, however, was brisk, and for the first time in many days the public had a real lining. The layers, according to report, sustained the heaviest loss of the season. Five favorites, a second choice and a well-backed long shot made up the list of winners.

Heavy rain in the early hours, coupled with intermittent showers during the afternoon, gave every variety of mud runner the opportunity to show to advantage. The Talbott and Bedwell establishments were again successful, each scoring twice during the afternoon. The Bedwell stable also furnished the worst disappointment of the afternoon in Michael Angelo, favorite of the fifth race, which finished last. The betting activity so noticeable about him when he won on the occasion of his previous start was conspicuously absent today. Banorella, which won the fifth race, was bid up to $605, an advance of $305 over her entered price, but her owner retained her.

Jockey Roscoe Goose, who was developed by J. S. Ward, has severed his connection with his former employer and signed a contract today to ride during the next year for Adair & Baker at a munificent salary in addition to the customary riding fee. The stable will be shipped to Kentucky at the close of racing here.

Entries to the stakes at the Lexington and Churchill Downs tracks, which closed today, met with a liberal response from the horsemen here and include most of the good racers in this section. The entry list to the Lexington fixtures would have been heavier but for the failure of the horsemen to secure stake blanks.

Bob Levy, manager of the Jamestown Jockey Club, accompanied by Albert Simons, was a visitor at Palmetto Park this afternoon. Mr. Levy reports that there are already 175 horses at Norfolk. During the coming week horses belonging to the following are expected in from various points: William Shields, 2; Thomas Fortune Ryan, 12; Thomas Collins, from New York, with Bourbon Bean and several others. William Garth has reserved seven stallions at Norfolk. Before leaving Norfolk, Albert Simons consummated the sale of two of the Whitney two-year-olds to the Quincy Stable. They were a colt by Broomstick—Loyal and a colt by Burgonaster—Marguerite. The Whitney youngsters under Mr. Simons' care at Norfolk, numbering thirteen, are said to be a grand-looking lot and it is the intention of Mr. Whitney to dispose of them all this spring.

The following work-outs took place in the slop over the Palmetto Park track this morning, while it was still raining:

Beth Stanley—Half mile in 54. Good work. Is improving.
Cliff Top—Five-eighths in 1:09. Has improved wonderfully and will race a better horse.
Col. Robert Neville—Half mile in 54. Good work. Dainty Mint—Three-eighths in 39. Liked the going.
Donald Macdonald—Five-eighths in 1:10. Breeding. Eaton—Half mile in 54. Hard held. Was not so good as usual.
Edna Leska—Three-eighths in 39. Showing nothing.
Haldeman—Three-quarters in 1:22. Is right good. Harwood—Three-eighths in 41. Cantering. Good colt and is improving.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. O. Talbott will dispose of several of his horses before shipping from Charleston to Norfolk.

Tommy Burns has sailed for Germany with Fred Taral and proposes to try his luck riding free lance abroad. Burns has always taken good care of himself and he is still able to ride at a reasonably light weight.

A controversy is reported to exist between Catesby Woodford of Kentucky, and H. G. Bedwell over the services of jockey C. Grand. Grand recently agreed to ride for the master of Raceland Farm, but has now signed up with the Bedwell stable.

Bourbon Bean is being fitted at Sheepshead Bay for summer racing. He was retired after receiving a severe injury, but is said to have recovered completely from his mishap. Thomas Collins, his owner, is confident that he will stand training.

Thomas F. Kelly, editor and owner of the Thoroughbred Record, is reported to be in a critical condition at his Lexington home. He has been seriously ill since last July with stomach trouble, but was not considered in immediate danger until he suddenly suffered a relapse a day or two ago.

The horses belonging to J. R. Wainwright will be trained by Al Luzader, brother of Fred Luzader, of Latonia, former trainer of the stable, who died recently. Al Luzader has been in charge of the string since last fall. The horses have been shipped from Latonia to Louisville to be prepared for spring racing. High Private, the star of the string, is in good condition.

ELLEN-A-DALE AGAIN IN TRAINING.

Kentucky Oaks Winner of 1908 Returned From Stud to Track—Gallopers at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., March 1.—For about a week prior to last Wednesday afternoon the Kentucky Association track was fast and the trainers of the 250 horses quartered there had begun to work their charges along at a pretty lively clip, but rain that fell Wednesday afternoon, Thursday and Friday morning compelled Superintendent Ross to close the main track and it became a case of going back to the sand track for gallops.

The most notable moves were quarters in 24 by an Allan-A-Dale filly and a Watercrest filly from the string of T. C. McDowell. Because they were coming back fall Mr. McDowell had no opportunity to try out his yearlings and that is why he is seemingly hurrying along these two-year-olds. He had eight others that went along in about 25. Ellen-A-Dale, the eight-year-old half sister to King's Daughter, has been put in training again by Mr. McDowell. She won the Kentucky Oaks in 1908 and raced until the close of the 1910 season when he turned her out. She would not breed, however, and he has decided to again race her. She is going soundly now, though the cause of her retirement was a worked tendon.

T. P. Hayes worked all of his fourteen two-year-olds in from 25 to 28. He has some good looking material in his outfit, but he let the most promising one go when he sold the Ornament—Algie M. colt to E. W. Heffner, of Sheepshead Bay, for $4,000. Mr. Hayes said a day or two ago that had he known Latonia and Delight Park intended to announce such liberal stakes he would not have sold the colt so cheaply.

Will McDaniel sent Charles McKenna's Derby candidate, Foundation, a quarter in 25½ and three-quarters in 39, easily. Foundation is one of the best looking horses in Kentucky. He has improved a great deal over his two-year-old appearance, though then a handsome horse. Johnson N. Camden's Derby candidate, Helios, was breezed through the stretch Wednesday morning. He is another mighty good looking three-year-old. J. O. Keene, trainer of Helios, will arrive in Lexington from Juarez next week. Barsac and his three-year-old Lord Marshall, which is also intended for the Derby races, arrived at the local course from the Mexican track Friday. They shipped in good condition. Mr. Camden, who has been in Bermuda for several weeks, is expected here in time for the meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission March 10. It was stated at the track yesterday that Mr. Camden had presented Practorian to Samuel Nuckols of Versailles. The gelding was brought in from Woodford county Wednesday by Will Reed, the colored trainer.

AMERICAN SUCCESSES IN AUSTRALIA.

Filly Bred at Hamburg Place Scores Twice in One Afternoon on Melbourne Track.

Lexington, Ky., March 1.—The thoroughbred running horses purchased from John E. Madden by Dr. M. M. Leach and Andrew Robertson and taken to Australia in the fall of 1911, are doing well under the training of Lou Robertson of the Allendale Stock Farm at race meetings in the vicinity of Melbourne. On the third Saturday in January at Caulfield, Hamburg Belle, the half-sister to Fayette, a four-year-old chestnut filly by Planudes dam Saratoga Belle, scored a double that is she started in two races that afternoon and won them both. Her first was a race at six furlongs, 102 pounds, in 1:14½, fourteen starters, and her second was seven furlongs, ninety-five pounds, in 1:28½, thirteen starters. Compared with our American records of 1:11 and 1:22 for six furlongs and seven furlongs, respectively, Hamburg Belle's time would seem slow to one unversed in the dissimilarity of conditions. Our American records are made over skinned tracks, with the footing hard and firm and the timing done with watches held in the hands of men who start their time-pieces at the fall of a flag dropped when the horses are in full motion and stopped as the nose of the winner reaches the finishing mark. Hamburg Belle ran her races over a deep turf course with a considerable hill to climb. The Australian timing is done automatically. At the first of the stand-or-box, as they call it—on every course there is a clock about three feet across the face. This clock is started by electricity from the starting gate. Immediately the starter releases the barrier the clock is set going. Since the horses go from a flat-footed, dead stand, it can readily be seen that the clock is well on the way before the horses are in their stride.

The name registered for the Planudes—Saratoga Belle filly in this country was Fausa, but the Jockey Club in Australia would not grant that name. Accordingly the appropriate name Hamburg Belle was claimed by Mr. Robertson, the filly having been bred and foaled at Hamburg Place and, being out of the good mare Saratoga Belle, daughter of the dinking-mare, Sally McGlelland, sister of Red and Blue, a daughter of the famous Maggie B. B., by imported Australian, one of the stoutest of American thoroughbred families.

Flora, Union Arms, Listed and Keswick are others of the Hamburg Place horses in the Robertson-Leach shipment that are making good in Australia. Likewise, Highbrow, which was purchased from Thomas C. McDowell. Flora is a half-sister to Flora Pina, which was the medium of a recent coup at Charleston. Listed is a half-brother to F. D. Weir's two-year-old winner, Old Rosebud, which is regarded by the racing public as the best at Juarez. Union Arms is a half-brother to Shannon.

The foals of 1910 taken over by Messrs. Robertson and Leach have been running out at the Allendale Stock Farm at Melbourne, ever since they arrived there and are now thoroughly acclimated. They will be taken up and put in training in about two weeks. Andy Robertson recently said that if he could find one among the eight youngsters as good as Hamburg Belle he will be more than satisfied with the cargo. Juarez, long considered the best country and the tedium of the trip down to the Antipodes with the horses.

The Sportsman, published at Melbourne, said after Hamburg Belle's double that Lou Robertson's ability as a trainer was not only in evidence but that he added: "It might pay some of our trainers with long strings and no winners to cut off their whiskers and be stable boys under Lou for a few weeks."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

L. A. K., Pittsburgh, Pa. The return was $34.70.

A. W., Chippewa Falls, Wis. Jockey T. McCulloch is at El Paso, Tex., and will remain there until the close of the racing season.

G. W. A., Louisville, Ky. Mosler has started in 117 races, of which he has won seventeen, was second in twenty-six and third in twenty-three.

H. W. H., Chicago. Ridgefarm is by Handsel—Ting Yuen, by Forester. His racing record is two starts at Hawthorne in 1911, in both of which he ran unplaced.

A. L. G., El Paso, Tex. G. Ham trains for William Gerst and a letter to him in care of the latter, Nashville, Tenn., or Wendell Farm, near Nashville, would probably reach him.

R. J. K., Chicago. Weyanoke was the favorite in the fourth race at Juarez last Thursday. High Street, Weyanoke, Russell McGill and Acumen were winning favorites there that day. In the absence of a stipulation to the contrary, the average of the opening and closing prices would be used in establishing which horse was the favorite.

M. X., Chicago. No objection to the layer declaring a wage on Lucky Mose a draw could reasonably be made because there is a horse of that name. At the same time when a layer accepts a bet, he should make certain what horse the bet was meant to be on. There is in the case room for doubling the bet on the horse called a draw if the odds were had run unplaced.

W. D. M., Cincinnati, O. Where a bookmaker has a well-known limit of 20 to 1, the better is bound by it and can win no more, nor is there any just way for the bookmaker to evade paying his limit if the odds reach it. In the case of the horse that opened at 30 to 1, closed at 10 to 1, and lost, the odds on the opening odds won at 20 to 1, but at closing odds won at 15 to 1 and C's at average odds won at 20 to 1.

GOSSIP FROM EASTERN SOURCES.

New York, March 1.—The first shipment of horses from Long Island this season departed for Norfolk, when Max Hirsch sent a string of ten from Sheepshead Bay for the meeting that is to open at Norfolk April 1. In the same shipment Thomas J. Healey sent eight of the Richard T. Wilson horses that he has been fitting at Belmont Park. Others will leave to take part in the Jamestown Jockey Club meeting, but a great many will wait until the opening at Havre de Grace, April 18, and those who do so probably will also race at the meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club, which follows at Pimlico from May 2 until May 20.

The Quincey Stable horses trained by James Fitzsimmons, will shortly be shipped to Norfolk. In his lot Fitzsimmons has Textile, the colt that was considered good enough as a two-year-old to start in a match against X-ray, the champion of 1910. This fellow has grown to proportions that make him the most talked of horse at Gravesend. Then he has Trifler and some other promising material. Jockey Schlesinger has been engaged to do the riding for the stable and he has been keeping himself in condition by riding the horses.

John Whalen, formerly trainer for August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, will campaign a string of horses under his own colors this season and has made a number of stake entries for Kentucky racing. Buskin, the best of his stable, has engagements in all of the important features offered by the New Louisville Jockey Club, at Churchill Downs. Mr. Whalen has his horses at Gravesend and, in addition to his own, he is handling Flammarion for David Gideon. Others in the string are Browner by Hamburg Running Stream; Macaroni, by Hamburg Flying Mac; the dam of Charles Edward and Jacobite, and Honey Bee.
